

THE ART OF ELECTRIC MANIFESTATION

For women in business, or aspire to be, who want to manifest the money, success and clients they desire and deserve.

About Me

Hi, I'm Jo, I'm a spiritual and intuitive healer, who couldn't manifest for toffee. I tried all the things I saw other people doing, or heard them talking about, and NONE of it worked for me. I just didn't get it!

Sure, I would manifest things accidentally – in fact, I considered myself very lucky, and I still do – but when I tried to do it intentionally, I couldn't manifest AT ALL. This went on for years.

I had to totally go rogue, and do things that NOBODY else was doing. And then, like magic, I started to receive mega-manifestations. Within a couple of months of starting my unique strategy, I received a huge lump sum of money – like the Universe had been waiting to gift me, storing it up, and it all landed at once.

It took me over a decade to do this, I had to learn the hard way. I am sharing my experience with you now, so that you don't have to. I changed my own life, and now I'm going to help you to change yours.

If you're not receiving a fair return for the energy you put into your business and supporting others, then I am the woman for you! I'm going to teach you simple and effective strategies, that allow you to take aligned and inspired action, to manifest exactly what you need, when you need it. So that you can carry on helping your clients AND create amazing results for yourself too!

This is for you if...

- You want to be able to afford to live your best life, on your terms, while focussing on your business. But you are trapped working your day job, because that's what's paying the bills. You get burnt out from trying to do "all the things" and still don't have the results you desire and deserve. You might have even given up on your business, because you're exhausted, have tried everything, and you're out of ideas for what to try next.
- You want to make a success of your business, and feel proud of your results. You're gifted, love what you do, and know you get incredible results for your clients, but you have very little to show for it yourself. You feel resentful or even jealous of people, who appear to be more successful. You hate feeling this way, but can't help it, because you know that you are just as talented and hardworking as they are – probably more so! You are left wondering: WHY NOT ME? Why isn't this working?
- You want to manifest MORE. You dream BIG, because you know that it is possible, you can feel it. You want to manifest more money, more clients, more resources easily, whenever you need them. But your intentions don't manifest! Whatever you try, it doesn't work. You feel like you are missing something. You've stopped setting intentions, or wonder what's the point, it is just a waste of time. You've lost faith in it, maybe even wonder if deserve it. Like, is the Universe even listening?!

If you're thinking, "Jo, you got me! You know what I want, and I know you can help me to get it" then do not waste another second!
